Important Details

- A share in the farm is generally a good fit for 2-3 veggie-loving adults or a family of 4-5. If you think this might be too much food for you, we can help you find another person to split your share with.
- All produce is picked up at the Farm in Arcata. Please refer to our brochure for a map.
- Any produce not picked up during the scheduled times will be donated to Food for People.
- If you know that you'll be missing a pick-up, please arrange for a friend to pick-up for you. We cannot refund you for missed pick-ups.
- Please bring your own bags to haul away your share of the harvest.
- If you want to join the farm, but just can't afford the price we're asking, contact Eddie to try and work something out.
